His son-in-law is eashier of the Talent Banking company, on which the old gentleman drew the checks eashed by Lukey. Landers was too much intoxicated to know what he was doing when the checks were presented for payment, and having said nothing to the proprietor of the hotel about them that gentleman refused to honor them when presented to him. Landers went to bed and was taken from his room last night and locked up without the knowledge of Mr. Wey, who knew nothing of the affair until this morning when he read it in the newspapers. He at once set about to secure the release of his guest and also discharged his night clerk for not calling him when the officers arrested Landers.

Death of Mrs. Trisk.

BUTTE, July 22.—Margaret Ann, wife of E. M. Trask, died suddenly a little after noon to-day at her residence, No. 205 South Wyoming avenue. Mrs. Trask had been ili a week only and serious results were not anticipated, although the best of medinot anticipated, although the best of medi-cal attendance was secured. She sank gradually until her death to-day. Mrs. Trask was 38 years of age, and was born at Little Falls, Minn., and came to Mon-tana with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Wil-liam Sturgis, when an infant, Mr. Sturgis being one of Montana's pioneers. She was married more than 10 years ago to E. M. Trask, one of the leading citizens of this county, and chairman of the board of school trustees. Mrs. Trask leaves four children. She is not only mourned by the hereaved family, but by the entire com-munity, who esteemed most highly her munity, who esteemed most highly her womanly qualities. The funeral will be held at 4 o'clock to-morrow afternoon from No. 205 South Wyoming avenue.

BUTTE WINS THE GAME Smoke the Cause of Philipsburg's Defeat Yesterday. IT WAS AN HONEST CONTEST

Both Sides Play to Win but the Big Mining Camp Team Got There.

BUTTE, July 22.—The Philipsburg club claims it was Butte smoke that was re-sponsible for the defeat of the visitors today. When the Butte batters caught the ball at the end of the bat, the ball went up in smoke and could not be found, Home runs, three and two baggers were made until the Philipsburg fielders grew weary. But there was no monopoly in the hitting, for Philipsburg made several home runs themselves, and altogether played a strong and hard game in the field and at the bat. The nine is one of the strongest that comes to Butte, A large crewd greatly enjoyed the match. Butte made two runs in the second in-ning on a double by Bright, single by ning on a double by Bright, single by Gleason and double by Munyan; two in the sixth on a triple by Smith and a home run by Bright; three in the seventh on a single by Brennan, double by Flannery and home run by Smith, and three in the minth on a home run by Caplinger, an error by Lohman, a bit by Powell and a double by Bright. Philipsburg made one in the first on a double by McMillan and a couple of errors; one in the second on hits by Hughes and Hill; four in the third on two errors, hits by Lohman and Wickizer. by Hughes and Hill; four in the third on two errors, hits by Lohman and Wickizer, a double by Hughes and single by Hill; one in the fourth on an error, a sacrifice and a wild pitch; two in the fifth on a double by Wickizer and a home run by Hughes, and one in the sixth on a home run by Fuller. Butte tied the score in the ninth inning and in the tenth won the game by making two runs on a hit by pitcher, a sacrifice and two errors. Score:

all the time and he will not until this article catches his eye. There is one member of the team who is never so happy as when he is "joshing" somebody and while the boys were at Great Falls he decided to the boys were at Great Falls he decided to turn himself locae on Harkness, he being about the only one who had so far escaped. The player in question accordingly hies himself away to the telegraph office and fixes up the tollowing telegram: Ray Harkness, hall player, Great Fails: Wire your lowest term to play in Spokane. OLLIE BEAKD, Manager Spokane Team.

Manager Spokane Team.

The telegram was then given to the hotel clerk to hand Harkness, and the rest of the players grouped themselves around to see the fun. In a few minutes "Hark" came in and was handed the telegram. As he read it through his chest expanded to such an extent that the two top buttons were bursted off his vest. He paid no attention to this, however, nor to the fact that the telegram was written on a Rocky Mountain blank and enclosed in a Western Union envelope and dated from Spokane, while at that time the team was in Portland, but at once sat down and wrote Portland, but at once sat down and wrote Mr. Beard a long letter giving him his terms and full particulars, while the other terms and full particulars, while the other players sat around and indulged in long smiles and exchanged knowing winks, Harkness mailed the letter and immediately seemed to be pos-sessed of new life, for he strutted around with all the freedom and abandon of a man whose mother-in-law had just died. The telagram seemed to burn a hole died. The telagram seemed to burn a hole in his pocket, however, for he would take it out about every ten minutes and read it over with an air of satisfaction which can be better imagined than described. He finally decided to show it to Manager Poweii and did so but got little satisfaction. Upon the arrival of the team here he showed the all-important message to several of the cranks, and would have had them in a great state of excitement bad several of the cranks, and would have had them in a great state of excitement had they not been previously informed of the joke, "Hark" is still waiting for a mes-sage from Manager Beard but after he reads this he will hardly look for it any was reported that he was living with another woman. The story found its way into the columns of the STANDARD. Wednesday morning. Thursday morning there appeared a denial by Mr. Carriganthat the woman was his wife at all. This evening Mrs. Carrigan stopped at the office to declare that she is the legal wife of Bryan Carrigan and that she can prove it. Bryan Carrigan happened to drop in also, and there was a scene.

"Do you deny that you are my husband?" demanded Mrs. Carrigan.

Byran did deny it. He acknowledged that he had lived with her back East, but claimed that they were not married. Mrs. Peter Flynn accompanied Mrs. Carrigan and she gave Mr. Carrigan and she gave Mr. Carrigan a long time. Mr. Carrigan said his wife would have to prove her claim to that title and Mrs. Carrigan said she had already sent for her marriage certificate. She said she was married to him as Crossmolme, Ireland. 10 years ago last Easter Saturday. Her lusband, she said, left her three years ago last May, and has written letters regularly, calling her his wife. She has five children and says she would never have come out here had she supposed her husband would have the nerve to disown her.

BUTTE'S YOUNG DEMOCRATS. Making Arrangements for Permanent

Headquarters for the Campaign. BUTTE, July 22.—The Young Men's Dem-ocratic club held a meeting tonight in the county commissioners' room in the court house. The attendance was light and the meeting short. D. Yancey, J. Meunier, C. H. Rice, John McCormick, J. A. McCon-ville, T. M. Hodgens, E.W. S. Tingle, Louis Frank, T. A. Burke, John V. Burns, W. B. McCabe, L. H. Converse, A. M. Smith and McCabe, L. H. Converse, A. M. Smith and J. E. McCormick were proposed for membership in the club and were elected by acclamation. The committee on securing permanent headquarters. Resported that they had not yet been able to find suitable rooms at reasonable rent. A large room on the top floor of the Owsley at $100 a month was considered about the most available and desirable. It was decided that if the county central committee would take the same room for its headquarters and contribute toward the rent, the club would take it and furnish it. The committee was granted until Monday to see the central committee democrats and talk them into it and then report to ta meeting of the club to be held on that evening at the court house. On motion J. J. Haggerty, Tom Booth, Dr. Haviland, E. H. Cooney and Thomas McGrath were appointed a committee to call on Tim Collms, chairman of the state central committee, who is in the city and also on W. A. Clark and see what mittee to call on Tim Collins, chairman of the state central committee, who is in the city and also on W. A. Clark and see what the programme is for the fall campaign and when the battle is to begin. It was decided that Friday night is a poor one for the club meetings and the regular meet-ings will hereafter be held on Monday. The meeting then adjourned until next-Monday night to receive the committee's report to headquarters. report on headquarters.

HER CHILD AS SECURITY. orinne La Ruche and Her Experience

With the Ledford Family. BUTTE, July 22 .- Of all the strange collaterals ever given as security for a debt, perhaps the strangest on record is that which, it was learned to-day, was deposited some time ago as a pledge for the payment of a debt of $50. The debtor in case is a woman known as Corinne La Ruche who, until quite recently, was one of the conspicuous characters of East Cheeks Were Not Honored.

BUTTE, July 22.—John Landers, arrested yesterday on complaint of Sol Lukey for cheating, was arraigned in the police court this morning and entered a plea of not guilty. A. F. Wey signed a bond of $200 for his appearance next Monday, and he was released. Landers, who is quite an elderly man, says that the whole affair is the outcome of a desire on his part to see Butte under the glare of the electric all the time and he will not until this artitime tendering the being given her child she was informed that the cost of keeping the little one had caused an increase in the amount of her indebtedness, until the total now caused an increase in the amount of her indebtedness, until the total now amounted to $101. This oversized her pile, and as the holders of the child would not surrender the security they held until payment of the full amount was made, the woman was compelled to leave without her child. She appealed to a policeman, but he told her that the question was one a little too deep for him, and advised her to consult an attorney.

IT IS A CO. Articles Signed for a Drilling Match Between Torgue and Paige. BUTTE, July 22.-William Paige's challenge has been accepted and the most ex-citing and hardest contested drilling match yet witnessed in the state may be looked for. This afternoon Sam Tonkin met Paige by agreement at the STANDARD met Paige by agreement at the STANDARD office, and announced that he was authorized to accept Paige's challenge in behalf of Peter Teague, one of the men who wonthe championship at Helena. Only a few moments were necessary to come to an understanding and articles of agreement were drawn up which both signed, and in five minutes from the time they met the match was made and each side had $100 deposited as a forfeit. The match will be for $150 a side and is to take place within Silver Bow county at some place to be agreed upon, and on a date no later than two weeks from next Sunday. Each man is to strike 15 minutes and have a turner; drills must be of ½ date no later than two weeks from next Sunday. Each man is to strike 15 minutes and have a turner; drills must be of ½ steel, with bits of a size no smaller, but it is the privilege of both men to have their drills smaller than the size specified, beginning at the bit and extending toward the head of the drill for a distance of four inches. An attempt on the part of either to use drills smaller than specified in the articles of agreement will cause him to lose the match and forfeit the amount of the stakes. The remaining $50 must be deposited at least four days before the date of the match.

Teague called at the STANDARD office this evening and signified his acceptance of the match made for him by Tonkin, and expressed the wish to meet Paige at the office of the STANDARD to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock, to decide upon a place for holding the match.

SOME OF THE HUMBUGS | O. K. LEWIS & CO..

A Stir in Christian Science and Paith Healing Circles.

Healers Will Back Up Their Claims in the Courts by the Holy Book-Mind Reading.

BUTTE, July 22,-The stir made in the Christian science nest of Butte by the suits instituted against a number of them by the regular physicians has created con siderable interest, and the "science doe tors" even threaten to make it sensational when the cases come to trial. If the court will permit them they will attempt to show that they and their practices are all right, and will use the Bible to estab-

will permit them they will attempt to show that they and their practices are all right, and will use the Bible to establish that claim. One of the female doctors devoted several hours of her valuable time this morthing explaining to a STANDARD man just what Christian science is, and citing some of her alleged miraculous cures. As evidence in support of her science she referred to the powers of Professor Tyndall which she tried to show was on the same principle as Christian science and spiritualism. She will probably not be pleased to hear that Mr. Tyndall denounces Christian science and spiritualism as the rankest kind of a humbug, and that he considers the practices of the former as criminal. He has known of cures effected in some minor ills by methods similar to those employed by the scientists, but says they were simply evidences of the power of one mind over another, but when a person attempts or pretends to cure a disease, chronic allment or cases where a surgeon s skill is necessary, by faith or Christian science, it is evidence sufficient that the person should be restrained by law from exercising his mental weakness and insane beliefs to the injury of others. Mr. Tyndall has also been annoyed at having his work classed with the exploits of spiritualism, and he has frequently challenged spiritualists to produce any manifestations which he cannot reproduce by mind reading. He says he takes special pleasure in exposing humbugs. "There are frauds and humbugs in all professions and occupations," he said, "and mind reading is no exception to the rule. The genuine mind reader wears the bondage as an aid to the concentration of his thoughts, while the fraud has it tied in such a manner that he is able to see from underneath, generally by raising the forehead after the knot is tied over a contracted brow. If he has a confederate he watches him; if not he keeps his eyes on the looks and gestures of his subjects. Much writing, supposed to be deciphered by mind reading, is really read by the operator under the hand partorm in Fortand and threw a damaging light on all of the mediums pretensions. In an effort to save his reputation Day's tried to convince the jeering audience that mind-reading was simply an off-shoot of spiritualism and of course could produce the same phenomena as the spiritualist pretended. Davis, in exercising his mediumistic powers held a conversation with the spirit of a boy who had recently been buried in Scattle, claiming that he had never heard of the child or his death. Carl King, the mind-reader who was in Butte last winter, happened to be in the audience, arose from his seat and announced that he himself had buried the child and that Davis knew of it. After the consternation which followed had cooled off slightly Davis went into a "medium trance" and predicted that the pope would die within

Davis went into a "medium trance" and predicted that the pope would die within a few months and that "Jack the Ripper" is a woman and would soon be arrested through the instrumentality of Davis. The pope is still alive in spite of the medium's prediction and "Jack the Ripper" has not turned out to be a woman.

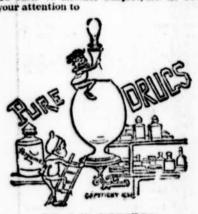

The spiritualists of Butte, and there are many of them, who have been regarding Mr. Tyndall as an apostle of their faith, can now have an opportunity of taking up his challenge and standing by their doctrine.
